Prob 12 (10/09)

OFFENSE: Operating After Suspension, in violation of Title 18, U.S.C., Section 13 assim. VA Code 46.2-301.

SENTENCE: 2 years unsupervised probation and a $25.00 special assessment fee.

ADJUSTMENT TO SUPERVISION: Julie Martinez reported to the U.S. Probation Office after sentencing on November 4, 2013. Senior U.S. Probation Officer Cindy Suter obtained her photograph and directed her to notify the U.S. Probation Office if she had any changes with regard to her address or telephone number while on probation. She also satisfied her special assessment fee that day.

Ms. Martinez's term of unsupervised probation was subsequently assigned to this officer. On November 17, 2013, this officer mailed her a letter directing that she contact this officer prior to any change in residence, and that she notify this officer within 72 hours of any contact with law enforcement. The letter advised that failure to comply with the directives would result in a violation report being submitted to Your Honor.

It appears that Ms. Martinez's compliance with unsupervised probation has been unsatisfactory. An automated record check conducted with ATLAS on April 1, 2014, revealed she obtained four traffic infractions since the onset of supervision, all of which resulted in convictions.

VIOLATIONS: The following violations are submitted for the Court's consideration.

MANDATORY CONDITION: COMMISSION OF A CRIME - GRAND LARCENY/STEAL PROPERTY GREATER THAN OR EQUAL TO $200 NOT FROM PERSON AND STOLEN PROPERTY: WITH INTENT TO SELL, LARCENY GREATER THAN $200.

Collateral contact with authorities at the Fairfax County Sherriff's Office on April 3, 2014, revealed Ms. Martinez was given a $2000 cash bond.

Collateral contact with authorities at the Fairfax County Detention Center on April 4, 2014, revealed she bonded out of their facility on April 3, 2014.

A computerized record check conducted with LOPAS on April 10, 2014, revealed that a preliminary hearing is scheduled in the Fairfax County General District Court on June 16, 2014.

On December 18, 2013, Julie Martinez was charged with Speeding (74/55) and Fail to Have Vehicle Inspected in Fairfax County, Virginia. On March 7, 2014, she was found Guilty in Absentia with regard to both charges in the Fairfax County General District Court. She was ordered to pay a $70 fine and $97 in court costs for the Speeding (74/55) conviction, and a $25 fine and $11 in court costs for the Fail to Have Vehicle Inspected. The fines and costs were due on March 7, 2014, and were not satisfied at the time of this writing.

On January 13, 2014, Julie Martinez was charged with Operate Uninspected Vehicle and Fail to Update License in Fairfax County, Virginia. On February 18, 2014, she was found Guilty in Absentia with regard to both charges in the Fairfax County General District Court. The fines and costs were due on February 18, 2014, and were not satisfied at the time of this writing.

CONDITION 11: FAILURE TO NOTIFY THE PROBATION OFFICER WITHIN 72 HOURS OF BEING QUESTIONED BY A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER.

On December 18, 2013, and January 13, 2014, Julie Martinez received traffic citations from a law enforcement officer in Fairfax County, Virginia. She failed to report the contact to this officer.
